The Autumnal Equinox on September 22nd has given us shrinking daylight hours and earlier sunsets each day. Now that October has arrived, summer is officially over, and families are making plans for the month ahead which will include many family gatherings.

Halloween, coming this month, is a time when children are looking forward to parties and "Trick or Treating". It's time for drivers to be cautious because children are not always cautious.

As the calendar year enters its last quarter, the lodge year moves into its second half. It's time to move on and spread the word of Elkdom.

The last few months at the lodge have been good and productive. The Cantina bar and the pool area were a great success. The BBQ on September 1st and the Pancake Breakfast on September 2nd had many helpers. My thanks go to all the volunteers who worked. The Pancake Breakfast should have had a greater attendance. We have over 1000 members and only 93 showed up for breakfast, that included families and friends who are NOT members. A lodge this size should have at LEAST 500 members attend. Many thanks to the band for ALWAYS being there for us and always sounding great.

On September 14th the California-Hawaii Elks Association President, Marty Mello and 1st Lady Debra visited our lodge for a tour and lunch. They were very impressed as to what our lodge has to offer our members. That evening, I attended a dinner hosted by our Bay District Vice President at San Francisco Lodge #3 in honor of our CHEA President and his First Lady. We heard his goals for 2024-2025 year which are: lodge activities, membership, and the major project.

The annual National Substance Abuse Month is in October and the Drug Awareness Theme for 2024-2025 is "Throw away drugs not your future".

A MESSAGE FROM THE EXALTED RULER JEANNE ATNO

A REMINDER TO ALL MEMBERS: if you bring a guest into the lodge, it is your responsibility to always be with them. Also, a guest cannot go into the members bar and buy a drink, you must purchase it for them.

GOOD NEWS: When the Trustees had their meeting at the end of August, they agreed to have a company come in once per month and service the exercise equipment. This should put an end to equipment being out of service for months. Please remember that members can attend these meetings held on the 4th Wednesday of each month at 5:30 p.m. and any other meeting held on Wednesday evening.

WE ARE STILL looking for a member who can play the organ. We have over one thousand members, SHIRELY one of you knows how to play an organ. PLEASE, let me or the office know.

The Elks is built on the foundation of respecting different beliefs and perspectives. We should always have peaceful discourse and respectful exchange of ideas. Let's demonstrate respect and understanding for opinions and beliefs that are different from ours. All Elks should remember the cardinal principles of our order: Charity, Justice, Brotherly Love, and Fidelity. We should NEVER take those words lightly or take them for granted!

Until November continue to enjoy our lodge and have a SAFE and fun Halloween.

Jeanne Atno E.R

Troop 44/4044

BOY SCOUTS OF AMERICA®

By Jonas Bell

This July Troop 44/4044 were coming off of an exciting June, getting back from Camp Chawanakee. Scouts were loaded up into a bus early in the morning in June, getting ready for the hours-long drive up to Shaver Lake, where Camp Chawanakee takes place. When they arrived, scouts lugged their bags over the campsite, where they ate lunch and got ready for a sure to be an unforgettable week at Camp Chawanakee. Throughout the week, scouts were able to work towards earning merit badges through merit badge classes, as well as taking many classes in open time; a period that many scouts used to have fun at the gaga pit or the climbing wall and hang out at the archery range or scoutcraft. Scouts also enjoyed swimming in the beautiful lake, frolicking in the water and progressing towards the aquatic merit badges. At the end of the week, scouts participated in an event known as “Chawana-days”, a series of scouting based competitions taking place on Friday. Scouts of Troop 44/4044 were able to show off their competitive streak and their scout skills. After that, all scouts at camp were treated to a delicious steak dinner, courtesy of the employees of the camp. The following day, scouts loaded back up into a bus and began their journey back to San Mateo.

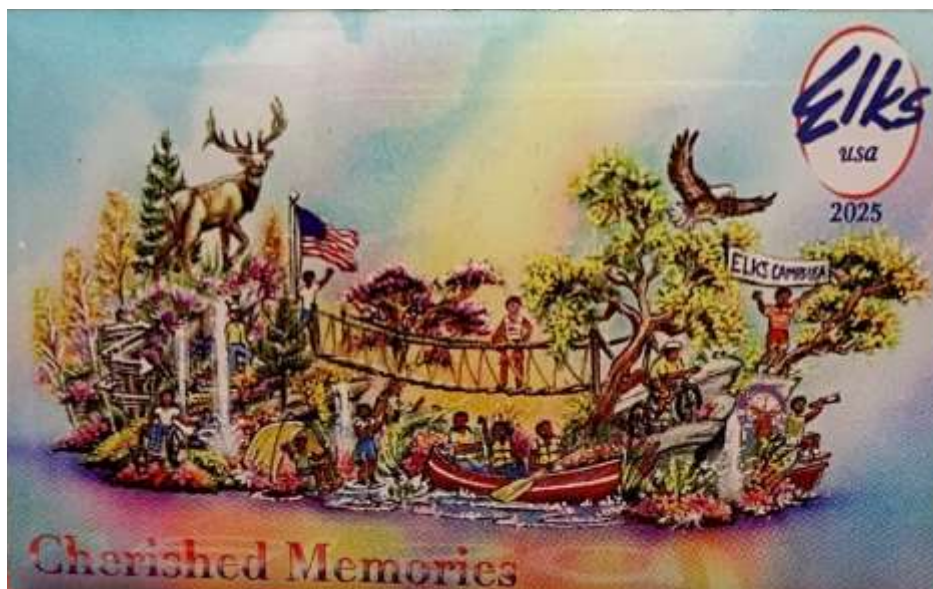

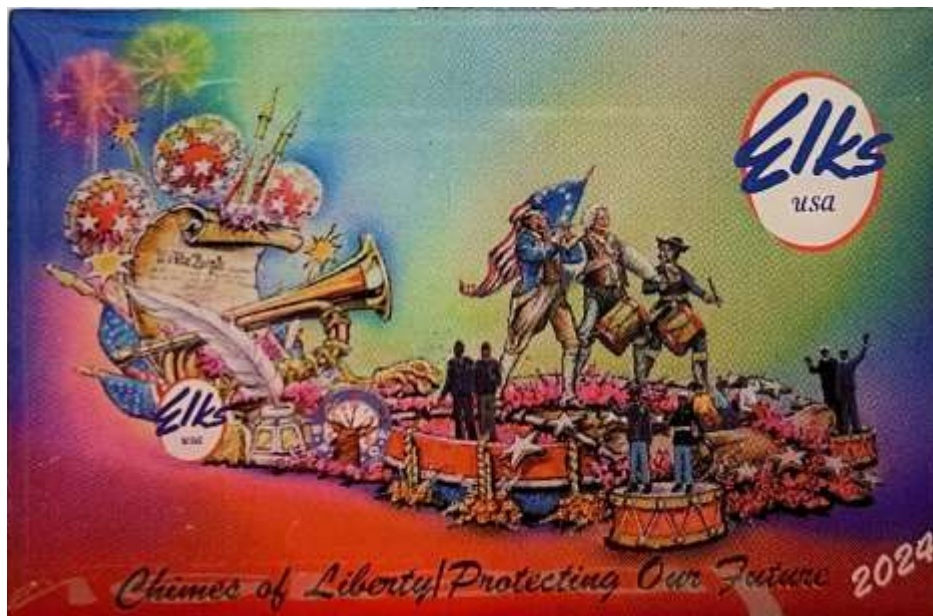

Starting off the meetings in July, Life Scout Jordan Lee led a fitness meeting, with the goal of helping younger scouts get their fitness requirements done, particularly the Tenderfoot requirements. The Tenderfoot fitness requirements mandated that scouts perform a variety of fitness activities, such as running a mile. Scouts also prepared for the next meeting’s Dutch Oven Cook-Off, which is a competition between patrols based on who can make the best of a given food category. In this case, scouts were competing on who could make the best dessert. Next meeting, was a field day, meaning scouts played sporty games like football, having a great time playing sports with their friends. Some scouts even brought Dungeons & Dragons to play and had a fun time doing that. The following meeting, scouts participated in a first aid based Jeopardy game, designed to help test and expand their first aid knowledge.

Finally, the big event of July was here: the summer trip! This year's summer trip was a trip to Mexico that’s purpose was to build a house for one of the families there. The local community in Mexico was incredibly welcoming to the scouts, treating them as some of their own and making them feel at home. It was tough work for the scouts, but it was worth every second.

Help support Elkdom by purchasing these commemorative pins. The two set pins for 2024 and 2025 are available in the office for $12.

SUMMER BBQ AT THE POOL

This summer's BBQ was a big hit out by the pool. Who doesn't love BBQ hamburgers and hot dogs or an ear of corn? Tri tip sandwiches and street tacos made an appearance on the menu and will return in 2025.

A huge shout out to the wonderful BBQ Kings and Queens who volunteered their time and made the poolside grill a hit!

Thank you to Bill Wratten, Ken Zari, Rich Sanchez, Joey Costanzo, Patricio Rojas, Aussie John Duffield, Lou Ruma, Bobby Paul, Gene Condon, Steve Panelli, Jeff Owens, Jonny Bering, Carson Condon, Martin Rojo, Vic Borelli, Rick Mattus, Teresita Condon, Carla Box, Catherine Hoffman and Lisa Michelis for a fun and tasty summer.

Lastly, thank you to all who supported the Purple Pig and ordered from the BBQ. It was a very good season for the pig and the lodge appreciates all the extra donations that filled the pig's belly.

The Tuesday AM Bocce league commenced play on September 3rd with a record number of players. As such, the league has expanded from 10 teams to 12 teams with matches scheduled from 9 a.m. to 12 noon every Tuesday on the Elks own bocce courts. We are happy to welcome first time player Jim Robin.

After the first two weeks of league play two teams are undefeated with 4 wins each. In first place, based on match totals, is Napoli captained by Mike Gaffney. Tied for first with 4 wins is Sorrento captained by Don Robertson. League matches will continue through November 12 with league playoffs on November 19th.

For further information, or if you are interested in joining the league please contact Don Robertson at donrsteam@gmail.com

Over 40 people showed up to wish Toni (our beloved bartender) happy birthday and play bingo. Thank you all for spreading the word.

Handball

Well, as you know, the Elks Handball group are not just a bunch of pretty faces. Our Elks handball crew not only wins handball tournaments all over the country, but they win at bocce as well. Our handball/bocce team has just won our 4th bocce title.

Attention all handball players! The San Mateo Elks will be hosting the Northern California Handball Hall of Fame Tournament at the #1112 on November 2nd and 3rd. Handball players sign up now before it fills u p. This tournament will have some of the countries best players in every division. If you are not a player, come check out some of the action.

-Frank Vasquez

We played Monarch Bay on Wednesday September 11. We had 28 golfers. The course was in decent shape except for the sand traps that had mostly dirt not sand. Steve Seitz was 5'6" from the pin on the 17th hole. Steve now leads for "closest to the pin" for the year. For "golfer of the year" it looks like a 2-man race. Don Robertson leads with 25 points and John Caselli has 19 points with 2 tournaments to go. The results of the tournament are below.

Our next tournament is at Metropolitan on Wednesday, October 2nd. The cost is $70 and the money is due on Monday, September 23rd. The sign-up sheet is posted on the golf bulletin. Everyone is invited to play.
